There was not room to include it in the Summer 2009 newsletter for the Fewkes letter but there is room in this one and I don't want to waste it! Both Dick and Glen have done such steadfast, reliable work to keep Psi Symposium alive and functioning anything they have to say I honor and share. jo-an@comcast.net)

Dear Members of the UU Psi Symposium,

At our October 3rd Board Meeting we agreed that Roberta Watson, Esq., Founder and Coordinator of the Psi Sym Chapter of Clearwater, FL and Rev. Glen Snowden, Psi Sym President, should prepare a Workshop Proposal for the 2010 Minneapolis General Assembly. Our exciting Proposal was submitted October 15, and the UUA will notify us of its approval/disapproval about the middle of November.

Our proposed Workshop Speaker is Patricia Seaver McGivern, author of Angel Babies: Messages from Miscarried and Other Lost Babies. Patricia's book is her personal story of spirit communication with her miscarried son, Dillon. It also references life stories of others who have faced similar losses and have experienced spirit communion - dreams, psychic experiences, visions, meditation, near-death experiences, hypnosis, coincidences and clairaudience – with their lost ones. Her book offers awareness and reassurance to those who have suffered these deep, painful losses. And for those on the greater path of spiritual understanding, Angel Babies offers insight and reflection that will deepen your understanding. Patricia has been a Speaker at the Clearwater Chapter on two occasions; her topics were (1) past life regression therapy and (2) Angel Babies. Both presentations were very compelling and evidential.

Patricia is a professionally trained Hypnotherapist. She studied past life regression therapy with Dr. Brian Weiss, a prominent psychiatrist and an acknowledged leader in the field of reincarnation therapies. Dr. Weiss' ground breaking book was Many Lives, Many Masters.

[Patricia's life in her own words] "On awakening that sunny spring day in 1996, I had no way of knowing that the course of my life would change in one pivotal moment. Had anyone suggested that my path would lead me to where I am today – working as a hypnotist specializing in past-life regression therapy and the author of a book about spirit communication with early loss babies – I would have vehemently shaken my head in disbelief.

No, I was a stay at home mother of two young children following a seventeen year career in the corporate world, not a sharer of deeper truths. Or so I thought. But that day I heard from my miscarried baby. How could I have known before then that one of my greatest gifts lay not in carrying my baby but in learning more through his death than his birth? It took over a decade for me to accept the gift of the life Dillon ultimately chose to share with me. His loss would cause me, both willingly and unwillingly, to stretch and grow my spiritual beliefs."

The title of our Proposed GA Program is

"Angel Babies: Our Lost Infants Speak To Us?"

"Having been through the loss of an infant son that has deeply affected my life, I am profoundly moved and impressed by Patricia McGivern's new book."

Raymond Moody, M.D., Author of New York Times best seller Life After Life.

Bright Blessings,

Glen Snowden, President UU Psi Sym

William James "White Crow" R. M. Fewkes - UUPS President (retired)

I recently had the pleasure of reading a biography of the famous 19th Century psychologist, William James in the Maelstrom of American Modernism, by Robert D. Richardson. James is best known for his comprehensive study, Varieties of Religious Experience, but he was also a pioneer in the London and American Societies for Psychical Research. He had the courage to pursue these studies in the face of opposition from both Spiritualists and Scientists. He exposed fraud where he found it and praised what he believed were genuine signs of spiritual truth when he encountered it. His "White Crow" of authenticity was in his study and encounter over a period of years with Mrs. Leonora Piper, a trance medium who seemed to reveal messages from departed spirits that were indicative of knowledge from a supernormal source.

Here is what he said about his work with Mrs. Piper in an address to the Society for Psychical Research in 1896: "If you wish to upset the law that all crows are black, you mustn't seek to show that no crows are; it is enough if you prove one single crow to be white. My own white crow is Mrs. Piper. In the trances of this medium, I cannot resist the conviction that knowledge appears which she has never gained by the ordinary waking use of her eyes and ears and wits". (P. 261)

His wife, Alice, shared his interest and recorded part of a session with Mrs. Piper: "Early at this sitting I inquired 'How is Aunt Kate?' the reply was, 'she is poorly.' Nothing more was said...till towards the close of the sitting, when I again said, 'Can you tell me nothing more about Aunt Kate?' The medium suddenly threw back her head and said in a startled way, 'Why, Aunt Kate's here. All around me I hear voices saying 'Aunt Kate has come' Then followed the announcement that she had died very early that morning." (P. 260-261)

James's conclusion, after some five years of careful research with Mrs. Piper 'was, that Mrs. P was either possessed of super normal powers or knew the members of my wife's family by sight and had by some lucky coincidence become acquainted with such a multitude of their domestic circumstances as to produce the startling impression which she did. My later knowledge of her sittings and personal acquaintance with her has led me absolutely to reject the latter explanation and to believe that she has supernormal powers." (P. 258)

James noted that the field of psychical research was one 'in which the sources of deception are extremely numerous. But I believe there is no source of deception in the investigation of nature which can compare with a fixed belief that certain kinds of phenomenon are impossible." (P. 264) James pursued his studies in psychical research because he believed there was truth to be found here in spite of the prejudice against these studies on the part of believers and unbelievers. The search for truth was not to be deterred by fixed beliefs or unbelief one way or the other.

What it all meant he was not sure, but it seemed to indicate "that the world that our 'normal' consciousness makes use of is only a fraction of the whole world in which we have our being." (P. 476) "There are resources in us, he came to believe, "that naturalism" never reckons of, possibilities that take our breath away, of another kind of happiness and power, based on giving up our own will and letting something higher work for us....with a wider self from which saving experiences flow in .the drift of all the evidence we have seems to me to sweep us very strongly towards the belief in some form of superhuman life with which we may, unknown to ourselves, be co-consciousWe may be in the universe as dogs and cats are in our libraries, seeing the books and hearing the conversation, but having no inkling of the meaning of it all." (P. 504-505)

Where are your "white crows" of spiritual truth and authenticity? The search of a lifetime is not too long.
May you continue in your quest for truth that confirms the source of your being.

PSI SYMPOSIUM:

Pathways to Spiritual Growth Through the Psi Experience

AUGUST 21 - AUGUST 27

UU Psi Symposium is a 40 year old organization whose members share an interest in spirituality, mysticism, psychic phenomena, intuitive development, alternative healing, and survival of consciousness after death, unexplained phenomena, and spiritual implications of scientific research.

The Psi Symposium Summer Conferences offer the opportunity for people interested Psi phenomena, to find support, insight, friendship, and meaning with those who share their interest.... kindred spirits who will never roll their eyes when extrasensory experiences are discussed.

THE 2010 CONFERENCE

Theme: "It's All Energy; We Are All One"

A growing number of scientists and psychics are finding agreement with the ancient Mayan prophesies, and those of other indigenous groups, that our planet is in a time of transition. There is also a great variety of opinion about the details. From 2009 through 2012, the Psi conference's underlying theme will be an exploration of our role in this transition. At each conference, the focus will be on positive aspects of what we can do for ourselves, and for our planet.

Morning Workshops: Sibylle Mayer Baughan will share energy practices the first and last days. Then for four mornings Ken Robinson will present the teachings of an ancient Peruvian knowledge, Ka ta_ see, which means "living in balance from the heart". It has been practiced and protected for over 30,000 years by a remote indigenous people and assists individuals in waking up to their vibrant alive Selves and in bringing balance back to the Earth. In this workshop we will explore our essence, and the power we have, to live in joy, clarity and unconditional love. We will learn how to create enhanced energy spaces, and know the directions as alignments of power and flow. We will learn about life energy and how to cleanse and rejuvenate our chakras and energy pathways. We will examine where humanity has been, where it might be going and explore how to personally and collectively make an enormous difference in the world.

In the Afternoon: Madeline Monaghan will present two workshops on Resonance Healing and Energy Medicine. They will include exercises to energize mind, body, and soul using Donna Eden's Energy Medicine techniques, Qi Gong for energizing and grounding, Tibetan Singing Bowls and the intuitive healing tool, Etheric Weavers.

The Healing Service, a spiritual high point of the week, will be coordinated by Sibylle.

Workshop Leaders: Ken Robinson is a healer, seer, and teacher. He holds Masters degrees in Counseling Psychology, and in Liberal Arts. He has been a therapist, counselor, teacher, camp director, and workshop facilitator, and has focused professionally on the field of environmental awareness. Madeline Monaghan has a Masters degree in psychotherapy and has been a Yoga teacher for 39 years. Sibylle Mayer Baughan is also a long time Yoga teacher, and has been a workshop leader at Ferry Beach many times.

Coordinators: Peg Smith and Sibylle Baughan are both members of the Psi Symposium Board and long-time Ferry Beachers.

Report of the Psi Summer Conference at Ferry Beach – Peg Smith reporting

Psi summer conferences are never “ordinary” but this year it was a really extraordinary mixture of happenings and emotions. We went from the highs of excitement over the Anniversary celebrations and seeing friends from years ago, to the challenge of grappling with new ideas from “The Law of Attraction”... .. from experiencing the healing effects of the vibrations of singing bowls, to extending healing thoughts and prayers to Dick Fewkes who left the conference to be with his wife as she was passing. For many of us, this resulted in some serious thoughts about the end of physical existence and the meaning of our lives. Offsetting this introspection, was the laughter.....times spent giggling with each other over who knows what, and laughing at the “Talent/No Talent Night entertainment.

The Healing Service in mid-week, too, was extraordinary. Singing bowls sent a healing vibration around the circle that interwove with the melody of a hammered dulcimer, with the wisdom of words read aloud, and with our thoughts that were sent to those in need of healing. At the end of the service, NO ONE LEFT. People just sat absorbing the sounds of the singing bowls. Ten, fifteen minutes passed before the first people began to drift away.

Perhaps the most extraordinary thing of all was that the Psi Sym conferees bonded with each other to the degree that they agreed to connect with each other during the year in meditation each Thursday night at 9:00 p.m. Rev. Glen Snowden, the new President of Psi and a member of the summer conference, has sent around an e-mail reminder each Thursday, so that now we are beginning to automatically think of Thursday night as meditation night.

UU Psi Symposium’s 40th and 30th Anniversary Celebration – Peg Smith reporting

This past August at Ferry Beach, UU Psi Symposium celebrated the 40th anniversary of its founding and the 30th anniversary of summer conferences at the Beach. The highlight of the celebration was the sharing of memories by its founder, Rev. Robert Slater, stories of the creation of the first summer conference, by Elizabeth Grassin,* and the recollections of interesting happenings by past (and current) presidents Rev. Dick Fewkes, and Rev. Glen Snowden. Then we adjourned to the dining hall, where we shared an Anniversary Cake and punch with the rest of the Ferry Beach conferences and staff.

On Sunday morning, after the worship service, we had a most interesting special workshop to which both the returning alumni and the Psi conferees were invited. Its focus was “Our Spiritual Path”. After being led by Sibylle Mayer Baughan on a Guided Imagery and Music journey, we were asked to think about where we were at present on our spiritual path... where we wanted to be.... and how we could get there. After each, we drew a picture to represent it. We did this in groups of 3 and 4, and shared with each other how our pictures portrayed our spiritual path. Those in our group found it both revealing, and helpful in showing us what we needed to do to progress on our path.

In the afternoon Psi Symposium had its Annual Meeting, after which Dick Fewkes led a Dream Workshop.

The final anniversary event was a program by Psychic Medium Pam Avery-Witham. After a meditation, Pam did a number of readings for members of the audience, with messages, and descriptions of those who had passed.

* In a future issue we hope to have a synopsis of these recollections of Rev. Slater, and Ms Grassin.

(Editor's note: Shirley Pratt, membership chair, forwarded this information. The year 2012 is a prominent theme for the Ferry Beach Conferences, thus is helpful it seemed to me for inclusion. For those of you who are "into" computers, please check out Matthews Messages and check out the listings there going back many years – the last one, Nov. 11th, is especially intriguing. jo-an@comcast.net)

This is by Jose Arguelies, PH. D., Galactic Research Institute

"In 'The Mayan factor, Path Beyond Technology' 1987, I concluded that the primary intention of the Mayan calendar system was not to measure time but to record the harmonic calibrations of a galactic synchronization beam, 5,125 years or 5200-tun(360 day cycles)in duration. According to the time science of the ancient Maya, a great moment of transformation awaits us at 2012, when we pass out of that beam. For humanity this beam constitutes the wave harmonic of history, 5,126 years in diameter, this beam commenced 13 August B.C. 3113, a date marked by the Mayan calendar long count as 13.0.0.0.4 Ahau. This precise date...will occur again on December 21st, 2012. Exactly 1,872,000 days will have passed, a cycle of 13 balduns of 144,000 days each.

This interval B.C. 3113 - A. D. 2012 comprises the totality of history as we know it-from the First Dynasty of Egypt to the Twin Towers, hence wave harmonic of history. During this cycle, humanity has gone from a tribal creature just learning how to live in cities, to being a full blown planetary organism.

In this process, humanity learned how to mechanize time. The mechanization of time created an unconscious mental field in which the human systematically separated itself from nature for the purpose of creating a vast industrialized order, the technosphere - a sphere of artificial time cast over the biosphere. Since 1618, the human species has been living in its own artificial time, apart from the rest of the biosphere that continues to operate in the natural cycles. The dissonance between artificial and natural time has brought about the present crisis - and pushed mankind toward a new condition of being.

The conclusion of the cycle in A.D. 2012 bodes a return to natural time and an evolutionary upgrading of planetary life. A resonant frequency phase shift will usher us into the brilliance of galactic-solar-planetary evolution. We shall pass not only into a post-historic, but a post-human or super human phase of our evolution. In fact, the entire 5,125-year cycle-hardly an instant of geological time-is but a mutative phase. This phase complete, a new evolutionary stage begins. This is known as the noosphere, literally, the mental sheathe of the planet, the mind of the Earth, where we think and act as a single planetary organism-a new race of bio-solar telepaths. With the advent of planetary consciousness will come, not destruction, but, at long last, universal peace.

Clearwater, FL – Roberta Watson, Convener

The Sunday, November 29th meeting featured Patricia Fogelsonger and Bruce Stewart discussing channelling, mediumship and transition to “the new reality”..

Rev. Patricia is a spiritual teacher and channeling facilitator, a certified intuitive and medium and a spirit-inspired mandala artist, specializing in soul mission readings and business soul mandalas.

The September meeting featured Tammy Taylor, host and creator of “Our Greatest Hour” radio show. Special remembrance was made for Fritzie Redmon, a beloved UUC member and PSI supporter, whose Memorial service had been celebrated the day before. Taking note of Fritzie's passing, Tammy's reading prayer requesting the presence and direction of our highest guidance, also invoked the invitation of Fritzie's presence for those who were open to hearing from her should she have something to share for our highest good. Most participants detected a profound message from her and experienced an enormous connection to their Divine shapeshifter within. Comfort with the probabilities of life is what "Our Greatest Hour" RADIO Show! encourages listeners to embrace with joy and confidence;

In The Berkshire Portal, Psi Chapter, we are starting to study the book "The Mystery of 2012 - Predictions, Prophecies, and Possibilities", Sounds True, Inc., Boulder CO, 2007. It is a collection of writings by prominent thinkers that explores 2012 from many perspectives: spiritual, historical, ecological, astronomical, scientific. Greg Braden, Jean Houston, John Major Jenkins, Jose Arguelles and Daniel Pinchbeck...and many others. I recommend it because this topic is only going to get more and more on center stage as we get closer to 2012. Already there have been some scary TV programs, and a doomsday movie is coming out soon. So it is a good thing to have a balanced view of what 2012 is all about.

===== A NEED FOR PRAYER =====

Psi Symposium has offered a proposal to the 2010 General Assembly committee for a workshop "Angel Babies: Our Lost Infants Speak To Us? - by Patricia McGivern, So all positive thinking, prayers, meditation, etc. to advance our cause would be appreciated. President Snowden and Roberta Watson, Clearwater Convener, have worked long and hard on this presentation.

(Editor's note: This is a deeply edited copy of a Kryon channeling dated October 17, 2009 in Canada. I would encourage you to go to the Kryon site and read the whole thing – these are the six “things” that have happened Against All Odds. Jo-an@comcast.net)

"Against all Odds"

The Beginning of the Shift

The Harmonic Convergence in 1987 postured the new energy and prepared the earth for the shift, and you moved right into it. Things started happening quickly. In 1989, my partner allowed me to come in and begin channelling. The first information I channelled to him was released in 1993. I said that the magnetic grid of the planet was going to change... greatly. Indeed, it happened in your lifetime, yet it had not ever done so in your parents' lifetime or your grandparents' lifetime. I told you that against all odds you were going to see it move greatly... to move more in 10 years than it had in 100. Against all odds, in your lifetime, this was going to happen. Then it did. Measurable, it is, even today. It's easy to do this with a compass. Against all odds, it moved, and your science took notice.

It's a fact in the scientific records that the heliosphere of the sun has changed greatly also. It has diminished. There is a magnetic resource that is coming into your solar system that is part of the Galactic Alignment, which you are currently experiencing. All of this, on time, all on schedule, all appropriate, my dear Human Beings.

All of this is in alignment with what the Mayans told you: one of the highest vibrations the earth has ever seen is about to be developed in this shift. And it's NOT going to happen in 2012. It happened in 1998! You are in the shift. The only explosion that's going to happen in 2012 is the explosion of the mythology of the western world trying to make you fear a date! You sit in the shift right now and the magnetic grid is part of it, all part of it. I told you this 20 years ago, and now it's here. Against all odds you experienced it.

In the same transcriptions in the same year of 1993, I told you that the weather patterns would change greatly. I said that within 20 years, you would see it dramatically. Seen any? It's here. You'll also notice that certain key words were not spoken. I never said anything about warming, did I? Your warming is a natural cyclical occurrence to the coming cooling! It has to do with the water cycle of this planet, and geologically it has sped up. Time is relative and your best scientists have called it so. In a vibrational shift of this planet, you have sped up time – not the time on your mechanical clocks, nor the time measured by what your radioactive isotopes release... not that kind of time. Instead, it is the interdimensionality of time... something caused by an interdimensional shift. You have sped it up. It's moving far faster, and your body knows it. You're feeling it. You know it's going faster, don't you? And so does the earth.

Then, against all odds, something happened; it was something that could not happen on a logical and intellectual level, but it did. Overnight, one of the giants in the scheme of Earth politically fell over. The Soviet Union ceased to exist. If you had asked your parents about that, they'd say, "Impossible." Twenty years ago, if you had asked the Pentagon about the potentials of this, they would have said, "Impossible." And if you asked the Kremlin, they would have said, "Laughable." Yet, against all odds, it happened. It is part of the shift. It is part of this new age of energy that is upon you. The elimination of one of the super powers had to be accomplished. Not one bomb fell. Not one battle was fought. Consciousness did it, if you noticed.

Three years ago, I gave you a prophecy that was not a prophecy, not a fortune telling attribute, but instead a report of one of the strongest potentials that existed in your reality. These are events that we could see coming because you are slowly creating them. This is the ability for us to see the potentials of what you are creating that you cannot see and I saw it, and I gave it to you and I told you. It was that the giant country just below your border [USA] was going to lose the stability of its largest corporations; the bastions of finance would fall over. I said it would start with insurance and it did.

When you look at those corporations, which literally were the American dream, which belonged to the United States, the ones that invented and created the automobile itself for the rest of the world... they're out of "normal business" today. Against all odds.

If you had asked an auto executive 20 years ago if that could happen, he would have said, "No. Strong we are. Nothing could do that." Against all odds, it happened. And it's important you understand why. Dear ones, there's no punishment here. These businesses didn't fall over because they were corrupt. They didn't fall over because they did something wrong. That's not the way it works. If that's the way it worked on Earth, many things would have fallen over a long time ago, wouldn't they? That's not the way it works. Instead, you had the beginning of the seeds of change in finance and banking that spoke of integrity. The consciousness of the masses decided to reinvent the way bankers work their banks, insurance companies work their money. The rules had to change and they are doing so! Many are still wondering what happened. There's a financial pruning going on within this planet, starting in North America, and we told you so some years ago. Against all odds, it happened as we said.

Let me tell you some more about that country below you [USA]. Against all odds... all odds, they have a president of color. That wasn't supposed to happen for two more generations. Ask a sociologist about this, for they run studies about potentials. There simply was too much hatred, too much bias, too many issues and too many problems between races to allow for this. Yet it happened. With all the racial strife, perhaps you wondered how they would ever resolve those racial issues? Yet against all odds, they elected a man of color. I would like to tell you this can only happen with a consciousness shift. It was way before it's time, according to those who study these things.

Number six is barely starting to happen, and you saw the evidence of it this year. Again I gave you a potential, not a prophecy of the future as a fortune teller, just the potential of what was in the works that you couldn't see. In the book The Great Shift, compiled by the very Human who organized this meeting (Martine Valeé), I said that there's going to be a revolution in Iran. There was, and now I'd like to give you the rest of the story.

Did you see it? It began this year. The seeds are there for a major Iranian revolution. Oh, it was suppressed... or was it? It grows even as I speak to you right now. The very few control the many there in that country, which has literally been called an Evil Empire. Isn't it odd? So were the Soviets, and look what happened.

Let history show what is going to happen for these are the potentials I give you now. It's number six. The revolution in Iran will be called the Great Revolution. The removal of the mullahs will take place. You will see it. If the potentials are as strong as they are today, you will see it. And with the removal of the mullahs, you will find a young Iranian civilization that is mature in their faith, who knows what they want, and will create stability. In fact, so stable can it become – are you ready for this statement? – that the stability of Iran may eventually lead to a stable Middle East. The Iranian influence may actually lead to what we will give you in number seven (to follow), for the Iranians may very well start to bring about peace in Israel.

Doesn't this start to make more sense to you? Oh, but I haven't give you number seven. I even hesitate... too unbelievable when you hear it. Listen, my partner: this may not take place in your lifetime, but you'll be here.

This is going to be meaningful to some of you and some of you will scratch your heads and say, "I don't understand." Listen: The final rebuilding of Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem will begin to proceed with the help of Islamic funding, combined with funding from supporters of Israel. [Pause]

It's really not that much of a stretch. Let me explain what they have at this moment. In Jerusalem at the moment there is a kind of static peace, for the reality is that you have three major religious players on the opposite ends of the hate scale, having to share the most hallowed, holy ground that exists for each of them. And it just happens to be the same exact place for all of them. In that place, where the Temple is to be rebuilt, is the place of the astral ascension of Mohammad, the profhet of Islam. The Temple Mount is the place, and it is also precious to the Jews and Christians.

The Jews would argue that Abraham's son, Isaac, was almost slain there. Their history is clear on this. Even the Christians believe this. However, in the Islamic world, it was Ishmael, the other son of Abraham, who had that experience on the Mount. So they both share the same holy places and they coexist in a peace of necessity. Have you noticed? That's not where the trouble spot is in Israel. It's all around it, but they keep the Temple Mount sacred. By defacto, they have been sharing this space for two generations, you see?

What I'm giving you now is already under way and although it seems far-fetched that the Jews and the Arabs would get together and fund the rebuilding of Solomon's Temple, the seeds of this have already been presented. Think for a moment of the incredible resources of both groups! This would be the third time for the Jewish temple, and in the middle of it would be an allowance for the grandeur of the Islamic Temple of the Mount. Together they would build something they could share and continue to share, but in the process, make it grander than ever... perhaps grander than anything that has ever been built! Together they would create ways where they could both visit each section of their own, and the Palestinians would visit their part for the first time, freely and openly. Even those who are not Islamic would be able to come in and enjoy the beauty of this sacred place, for the first time, without those standing by with weapons in case there's trouble.

A TWELVE POINT SYNOPSIS OF ABRAHAM-HICKS' TEACHINGS

1 : You are a physical extension of that which is non-physical.

All-That-Is, or that which you call God, is not finished and waiting for you to catch up. You are the leading edge of thought, here seeking more : more of all that feels good to you, more that which is fresh and gloriously uplifting

2: You are here in this body because you chose to be here.

You chose the opportunity to experience this delicious contrast in time and space, and with great anticipation you came to co-create with other joy-seeking Beings, to fine-tune the process of deliberate thought. (What, where, when and with whom you create are your choices, too.)

3: The basis of your life is Freedom; the purpose of your life is Joy.

You are free to choose, to discover new avenues for your joy. In your joy you will grow; and in your growth you add to the expansion of All-That-Is. (However, you are also free to choose bondage or pain...but everything anyone chooses is only because they believe it will help them feel better.)

4: You are a Creator; you create with your every thought.

By the Universal Law of Attraction, you are attracting the essence of whatever you are choosing to give your attention to -- whether wanted or unwanted. And so, you often create by default. But you can know by how your creation feels if what you are attracting (creating) is what you are wanting or if it is not what you are wanting. (Where is your attention focused?)

5: Anything that you can imagine is yours to Be or Do or Have

As you ask yourself why you want it, the essence of your desire is activated, and the Universe begins to bring to you . The more intense your positive feelings, the faster it is coming to you. (It is as easy to create a castle as a button.)

6: As you are choosing your thoughts, your emotions are guiding you.

Your loving Inner Being offers guidance in the form of emotions. Entertain a wanted or unwanted thought, and you feel a wanted or unwanted emotion. Choose to change the thought and you have changed the emotion - and you have changed the creation. (Make more choices in every day.)

7: The Universe adores you for it knows your broadest intentions.

You have chosen to come to earth with great intentions, and the Universe constantly guides you on your chosen path. When you are feeling good, you are, in that moment, allowing more of that which you have intended from your broadest perspective. (You are Spirit Incarnate.)

8: Relax into your natural Well -Being. All is well. (Really it it!)

The essence of all that you appreciate is constantly flowing into your reality. As you find more things to appreciate, your state of appreciation opens more avenues to more for which to feel appreciation. (As you think, you vibrate. As you vibrate, you attract.)

9: You are a creator of Thoughtways on your unique Path of Joy.

No one can limit where you can direct your thought. There are no limits to your joyous journey to experience. On the path to your happiness you will discover all that you want to be or do or have. (Allowing others their experiences allows you yours.)

10: Actions to be taken and possessions to be exchanged are by-products of your focus on Joy.

On your deliberately joyous journey your actions will be inspired, your resources will be abundant, and you will know by the way you feel that you are fulfilling your reason for life. (Most have this one backwards, therefore most feel little joy in their actions or their possessions.)

11: You may appropriately depart your body without illness or pain.

You need not attract illness or pain as an excuse to leave your body. Your natural state - coming, remaining or leaving - is that of health and Well-being. (You are free to choose otherwise.)

12: You can not die; you are everlasting life.

In grace, you may choose to relax and allow your gentle transition back into your Non-physical state of pure, positive Energy. Your natural state is that of Foreverness (Have fun with all of this! You can't get it wrong, and you'll never get it done.)

PS It is not necessary for even one other person to understand the Law of Attraction or the process that we are offering here in order for you to have a wonderful, happy, productive Life Experience - for you are the attractor of your experience. Just you!

The greatest destruction that takes place upon your planet, and the greatest sadness that is brought about as a result of it, are your man-made, man-induced wars. And yet, when we feel into the vibration of the masses that are involved (not just the leaders, but the masses that are involved) within the conflict, it is a satisfying adventure. Wars are created because they are satisfying something within large numbers of people-or it would not be.
